

Beautiful

Natchez

Awaits You Oct. 22-23, 2021

Mississippi Poetry Society Fall Mini Festival

Lodging at The Vue, overlooking the Mississippi River
130 John R. Junkin Dr., Natchez, 601-653-8888
$108 Standard Room; $119 suite
Use Group Name: Mississippi Poetry Society Festival
Cutoff date extended: Oct. 8, 2021

Registration: 8:45 a.m. Business Meeting: 9 a.m.
Saturday, Oct. 23, followed by activities.

at Copiah-Lincoln Community College's Natchez Campus in the W. L. Nelson Multi-Purpose Room in the Vocational-Technical Center, Campus Drive.

 Poetry * Lunch * Fellowship * Prizes

Cost: $15 (includes lunch: assorted poboyos, coleslaw, potato salad, dessert, beverages) - $8.00 without lunch
Masks required, except when eating and reading.

Things to do/places to go in Natchez

An abundance of recommendations are at visitnatchez.org

Some interesting recommendations from Mark:

Natchez in Historic Photographs

An amazing collection of photographs taken over 70 years by the famous Norman father-son team, upstairs
First Presbyterian Church (side door) Free. 400 State St.

Longwood

Largest octagonal house in America with a historical surprise. Guided tour. $25.00. 140 Lower Woodville Road
Natchez Museum of African American History and Culture

A plethora of displays, historical documents, and more. Free, 301 Main St.

Walk along the Natchez Bluffs and enjoy the scenery.

Rosalie Mansion and Gardens

Operated by the Mississippi Daughters of the American Revolution.
An ante-bellum estate on the Mississippi River Bluff. 100 Orleans St.

Others: Carriage Rides, Open Air Tour, and more.

Information available at the Natchez Visitors Center, 640 Canal St.

For information: Patty Butkovich at pattyb8319@gmail.com.